VOL. VI. NO. 6.

CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, JANUARY 7-8, 1900.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

HAWTHORNE STAKES.

Racing will be conducted on liberal scale at Hawthorne track next summer. Stake events and over-night handicaps for good-sized purses will be features of the sport. Manager McEvoy, acting in the absence of Secretary Kuhl, has arranged with the directors of the Chicago Jockey Club to open seven rich stakes for the spring meeting, which will be held early in June. Later in the year similar stakes for the summer and fall meetings will be announced. Entries for the spring stakes will be received up to midnight of Wednesday, March 7, at the office of the Chicago Jockey Club, 403 Monadnock Building. Hawthorne and Harlem will race alternately every two weeks, just as they did last year, but there will be a much closer bond of unity between them, all friction and cause of clash having been removed. If the Washington Park Club managers should decide to give a race meeting this season both Hawthorne and Harlem will close their gates for the customary twenty-five days.

The revival of stake races in Chicago is well liked by horsemen, and promises to largely restore the sport to the high place it has held in former years in the estimation of the paying public. In addition to this the purses in many events will be materially increased so as to draw out a better class of horses. A number of improvements are also to be made at Hawthorne, the most important of which will be the construction of a new steeplechase course, the painting of the buildings, and a general overhauling of the track and structures.

The Hawthorne Spring Stakes are as follows:

THE HAWTHORNE TURF CONGRESS STAKES OF 1900. (Handicap)—Estimated value, $3,000. For 3-year-olds and upward. ST. LOUIS STAKES.

The St. Louis Fair Association advertises the goody array of twenty-five rich stakes in this issue of DAILY RACING FORM. The meeting at the Mound City begins May 12 and continues until the ninety days of racing allowed by the Missouri laws shall have been covered. The Association had a successful and prosperous meeting last year and in increasing its number of stakes has taken the right measure to insure one even more attractive and prosperous this year. Besides it shows a commendable disposition to divide the profits of racing with owners. The stakes close next Saturday so that owners have no great time to waste in the matter of sending on their entries to President Aull. All ages and classes of horses are provided for in this list of stakes and under remarkably liberal conditions as to entrance and starting fees. It will be observed that there is a novel feature in connection with the guaranteed stakes, and that is the pledge of the club to add a fixed sum to each. This is bound, in the case of numerous entrants, to greatly increase the value of the stakes over the sum specified as guaranteed. The list is commended to the attention and patronage of turfmen throughout the country.

STAKES AT LOUISVILLE.

The date set for the closing of entries to the stakes offered for the spring meeting of the New Louisville Jockey Club is drawing near, but little more than a week remaining. The list includes the new and important Turf Congress Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, with $2,000 added, the Debutante Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, the Wenonah Stakes, for two-year-old colts and geldings, the Juvenile Stakes, for two-year-olds, the Blue Grass Stakes and Premier Stakes for three-year-olds, the Mademoiselle Stakes for three-year-old fillies and the long established Frank Fehr Stakes for three-year-olds and upward. It is a list to appeal warmly to owners and there is no question that these events should be generously treated by horse owners. Louisville was the pioneer in the establishment of racing on a modern basis in the west and for that reason if no other offered the Louisville Jockey Club should be well sustained.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Encouraging reports indicate a substantial increase in the number of entries made to recently closed stakes east and west as compared with nominations to the same events last year.

A point of interest is involved in the comparative number of entries of mares to the Coney Island Futurity and its new far western rival, the California Futurity.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the numbers of its charts are copyrighted. The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selections and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.

AMERICAN RACING RULES OF 1899.

The 1899 edition of the American Racing Rules, published by Secretary E. C. Hopper of the American Turf Congress, is out and can be sent by mail to any address from this office for 25 cents. The book contains the racing rules as amended to January 1, racing Colors as registered and betting rules, and a digest in index form which is a guide to all the books' contents.

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private information. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general performance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.

PEDIGREE BLANKS.

On linen paper, artistically edged in colors, ruled and arranged for six generations of sires and dams of individuals and their ancestor. Ten cents each, $1.00 per dozen, $3.50 per hundred. No owner of a stallion should be without a supply.
